Avenue Evennou

A Joint Presentation of Franck Evennou's Innovative Designs

Dec. 1st - Dec. 23rd at Maison Gerard and Bernd Goeckler

Maison Gerard and Bernd Goeckler are excited to announce that in the coming week they will be transforming East 10th Street (between University and Broadway) into Avenue Evennou in celebration of the work of artist and designer Franck Evennou.

Opening December 1st, this joint exhibition, the artist's first in New York, will include an online presentation, window installations, and gallery viewing by appointment. In this unusual time, these galleries are seeking new ways to ensure their artists and clients continue to dream, feel inspired, and keep the senses delighted.

Franck Evennou expresses himself in bronze and wood as others express themselves in verse; he has a poetic language inspired by nature and nostalgia. He is an artist who knows no borders, working across the mediums of sculpture, furniture, and jewelry. Through these diverse practices, he evokes the natural, the beautiful, and the historic.

This collaborative exhibition will showcase new works as well as a selection of Evennou's elegant, organic, limited editions that span his career. Evennou has made numerous pieces for collectors and executed exceptional commissions, including the monumental door of the residence of the French Embassy in Lebanon commissioned by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, objects and furniture in bronze and glass églomisé for Daum, jewelry for the Mint of Paris, and the Musée de la Chasse et de la Nature à Paris, for which he constructed a forest of bronze.

AVENUE EVENNOU

DECEMBER 1-23, 2020

Bernd Goeckler is pleased to announce a joint exhibition with Maison Gerard, transforming East 10th Street into AVENUE EVENNOU — a celebration of the work of bronze artist and designer Franck Evennou. This will be the first exhibition of the artist's work in New York.

Opening December 1st, this exhibition is our first physical show since March. 'Avenue Evennou' is even more special to us, as it is our first collaborative show with our neighbor Maison Gerard. We are activating our 10th Street neighborhood, and presenting a fun, experiential show that encourages traveling between our galleries.

Our presentation will also largely exist in our windows, for safety protocols, and to redefine the idea of 'window shopping'. In this unusual time, we are seeking new ways to ensure that our artists and clients continue to dream, feel inspired, and keep the senses delighted. It's all about discovery and exploration, and celebrating New York.
